WILSON'S SECOND TRIAL

For the Murder of Officer Murphy at Martin's Ferry Begins.

The second trial of William Wilson began at St. Clairsville yesterday morning, Judge William Chambers presiding. G. L. Weems and J. W. Hollingsworth appeared for the state and Captain Danford and Mr. Shay for the defendant.

The first step taken was a plea in bar by the defense, setting up the former trial and judgment. To this the state demurred. The demurrer was overruled, and a jury was empaneled. The testimony offered on the part of the defendant was a transcript of the record.

On the part of the state the supplementary motion of defendant for a new trial at the last term, affidavits in support of the motion, the record of judgment and order of the court sustaining the supplementary motion and granting a new trial, and the identification of Wilson as the party named, were offered.

The issue as to the truth of the plea was submitted to the jury without argument, under the charge of the court, and a verdict returned that the plea was not true.

Thereupon the defendant moved for judgment and discharge, notwithstanding the verdict. This motion was overruled and exception taken. Exceptions were also taken by defendant to all adverse rulings in this proceeding.

The jury chosen was as follows: Josiah Jones, George Barnes, George Green, sr., Charles Minnemyer, Samuel Hillis, A. W. Burkhardt, Joseph Taggart, George Caldwell, Dillon Pickering, William English, A. O. Mills and Wilson McKelvey.

Thirty witnesses for the state were called and sworn and court adjourned until 1 o'clock.

Prosecutor Weems opened with statements for the state and Hon. Lorenzo Danford for the defense.

The evidence was the same as on the former trial, and the story of the crime is familiar to readers of the INTELLIGENCER. A night session was held last night.

THE THIRD MAN CAUGHT.

John Mallory, one of John Parker's Assaultants, in Hoc.

Yesterday morning the authorities at Cleveland, O., telegraphed that they had arrested John Mallory, one of the four men wanted for the assault and robbery of John Parker out in Belmont county last week. It was learned yesterday that Parker's skull was cracked, and as he is about eighty years old he is not expected to live.

Mallory is Parker's son-in-law, and was positively identified by him. Yesterday ten or a dozen men who had seen the four robbers came to the city from Belmont county and identified Ben Frazier and "Pudding" Lowry as two of the men, after which Squire Gillespy formally committed them to jail.

The fourth man is said to have been Joe Schotzinger, who seems to have made his escape. Lowry and Frazier refused to go to Ohio without a requisition, and frankly said they would cause the authorities all the trouble they could.

Nine Cases Yesterday.

Len Reynolds, Thomas Kelly and Tom Durkin, vagrants, were up in the police court yesterday morning. Durkin was let go, and the two others given thirty days on the hill.

Joseph and Pearl Cavatho, Tom and Harry Hill were up for a row at the Italian saloon, and were given thirty days each.

Owen Palmer and Teddy McGrain, for assault on old John Haley, were fined $1 and costs each. Palmer paid and McGrain went to the workhouse.

Dick Klinefelter Sentenced.

Yesterday Judge Briggs sentenced Richard Klinefelter to six years imprisonment in the penitentiary and to pay the cost of prosecution. Klinefelter was convicted of the brutal assault on Mrs. Millitzer on January 4. Judge Briggs gave him a severe lecture, to which Klinefelter answered that he was innocent, and at least one of the real robbers would be found in less than six months. He named the party who would answer for it.

Somebody Stole the Spoon.

Yesterday a boy employed at George L. Durst's loaded a freezer full of ice cream and a package of dishes and spoons on a barrow, and then went into the store, leaving the barrow in the alley in the rear. When he came out the package containing the spoons and dishes was gone, and up to a late hour last night no trace of it had been found.

Mrs. Temple No. 3 Out.

Yesterday Mrs. Harry Temple No. 3, nee Miss Colley, of North Carolina, was released from jail. She and Temple's wife No. 1, of Indiana, seem to have become very warm friends. Both are at the Stamm house and yesterday they and Rex, the first wife's son, were out taking in the sights together. Both seem to be thoroughly good women.

Sent to Jail.

Yesterday Mike Condry and Gene Arnett were arraigned before Squire Gillespy on a charge of breaking into and robbing Schubauch's barber shop, on Sixteenth street, and after a hearing they were sent to jail in default of $1,000 bail each.

THE LOCAL MARKETS.

An Unusually Tranquil Week Has Been the Present One.

FEATURES OF THE LOCAL MARKETS.

Eggs and Hay Have Taken a Drop Which Was Caused by the Warm Weather—Florida Vegetables are Beginning to Arrive Here—The Demand is Unusually Poor—Hard Times the Cause.

The past week has been an unusually tranquil one in local commercial circles, especially in the wholesale lines of trade. Fewer changes of quotations than is ordinarily the case are recorded. The warm weather which seems to have set in for a few days has had a drooping effect on two lines—eggs and hay. Unless a cold spell sets in eggs will have reached their highest price for the winter, and will continue to drop gradually until the summer figures are reached. Already the great army of hens have taken the field, and the result is the decreased price. The cold storage article will soon be an absent quantity.

The drop in hay amounts to a dollar per ton, on both baled and loose. Early in the season the craze for exporting this necessary article of food, and the scarcity of the crop in this immediate neighborhood, caused the quotations to climb to unusual figures. Since then the South American hay has taken total possession of the European markets, and the western hay crop being very good, the prices are down slightly below the ordinary for this time of the year. Until the last week most of the hay in the local market was from Michigan and other western states, but the home hay is now coming in freely, to the exclusion of the Wolverine article.

The early shipments of vegetables and produce from Florida have commenced, Parker Bros. yesterday receiving the first lot of Florida cabbages of the season. Tomatoes, beans, cucumbers and other articles of semi-tropic and hot house growth are also beginning to arrive. However, the demand for all lines of produce and vegetables is poorer just now than has ever been known in Wheeling before this, and the retail and wholesale dealers ascribe the lack of demand to the hard times.

Bridgeport Republican Primaries.

There will be a meeting of Republicans this evening in the city hall at Bridgeport to complete arrangements for the nomination of candidates for the municipal election this spring. The central committee have decided to place in nomination, candidates by the Australian ballot system. This plan meets the approval of the public sentiment there, and candidates can not afford to oppose it. All the candidates are expected to be present.

"The Rainmakers."

Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday afternoon Donnelly and Girard appear at the Opera House in this screaming farce. The sale of seats opens at C. A. House's music store this morning. The New York Herald says:

A crowded house greeted Comedians Donnelly and Girard in their new farce comedy, "The Rainmakers." As a medium for the introduction of clever specialties "The Rainmakers" is a success. Donnelly and Girard are as funny as ever. Ross and Fenton are entertaining in burlesque, while the chorus of pretty girls in costumes of gauze and electric lights was certainly attractive.

The Modern Invalid

Has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable in form, purely wholesome in composition, truly beneficial in effect and entirely free from every objectionable quality. If really ill he consults a physician; if constituted he uses the gentle family laxative Syrup of Figs.

THE OPPORTUNITY—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

THE OPPORTUNITY

STILL OPEN.

This week will witness a repetition of the tremendous trade attracted by our great stock reducing sale. In every department we have prepared ADDITIONAL SURPRISES, put in still better qualities, at still lower prices, sorted up broken lots and odds and ends left in the popular scramble for choice, and again classified them, at special prices. We use the word surprises advisedly, for that best expressed the verdict of the hundreds who have bought our perfect goods, and in turn sent other hundreds to grasp the good things going, at such unprecedented prices. The values we are giving in our
